SOLDIERS INVADE LOCAL STADIUM AT 8 O'CLOCK; STATE GRIDDERS SHAKY

By SEBASTIAN SQUATRITO

Today is Fort Ord day, but it might turn out to be a nightmare for the Spartan football team by eleven o'clock tonight. Led by Coach Arthur "Snowy" Gustafson, a squad of 40 football players will arrive in town at eleven o'clock this morning for tonight's game.

Along with the team will be from 1,000 to 1,200 troops including a band and a battery of 75 millimeter guns. These troops will stage a pageant at half time of tonight's game and will fire the guns at that time. They will also set up a model camp which will be open to the public during the day.

SOLDIERS' FIRST

Tonight's game will be the first for the soldiers and the third for the Spartans. With victory No. 13 safely tucked away, Coach Ben Winkelman's outfit will be out to get No. 14 and an all-time win streak for a San Jose State college football team.

Although he plans to start the same men that have started the past two weeks, Winkelman will give the reserves that have shown promise a chance in tonight's game—if he can.

RESERVES GOOD

Loaded with stars from the ranks of universities and professional teams, the soldiers will field the biggest team the Golden Raiders will face all season. They will be led by Pete Zagar in the backfield and Del Bjork in the line. Zagar, former Stanford All-American tackle, will be the starting fullback and with his 225 pounds packed on his 6-foot 3-inch frame promises to give the Ordsmen plenty of power down the middle.

PASS OFFENSE

Bjork is the most feared line-man by Coach Winkelman. He is 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighs 215 pounds and will be at left tackle. Formerly with University of Oregon and the Chicago Bears, Bjork is a veteran of six years of football.

EPSILON PI TAU PARTY MONDAY

Epsilon Pi Tau announces its annual party for members, industrial arts majors and friends of the department, to be held Monday, October 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Good fellowship is the theme. All those students who are enrolled in Industrial Arts courses are cordially invited.

Entertainment, plus refreshments are on the program. A profitable evening for all is promised by the department. There will be no charge for this event.

Those who plan to come, place their names on the list posted on the bulletin board in the hallway of the Industrial Arts building by Friday.

CLASS ELECTION HELD

Students Invited To Join Pre-Game 'Chest' Pep Parade

All San Jose Staters, sororities, and organizations are invited to join the band and football team when they represent the college in the Community Chest parade to be held Monday night.

The parade will also be a noise rally for the Hardin-Simmons game set for next Friday night.

Students will meet in front of the Men's gym at 5:30 Monday night, seven trucks being provided for those without means of transportation.

San Jose State will make up the sixth division of the parade, its section to form in front of the school, taking its place in line at Vine street. The parade will wind up at the Civic auditorium where a Community Chest rally will be held. Part of the program will consist of a short skit put on by the Physical Education department.

The football team will travel in two trucks and trailers, and the band will be in full regalia.

Buy La Torre On Time, Says Staff

The Federal Government has set its foot down on installment buying but the La Torre business staff is still allowing individuals time in which to pay for the year-book.

After considering the pleas of many sorority and fraternity leaders that their coffers had been emptied by current rushing affairs and that it would strain their treasuries if they paid the whole amount now, they decided to accept partial payments on pages. This is a new ruling made by the yearbook staff. Rates were announced in yesterday's Daily.

Students may also make a partial payment on yearbooks, making a $1.25 down payment and the balance by spring quarter.

Representatives from all organizations must make arrangements with Leon Torrey or Walt Schmidt before October 15. Anyone failing to do so will be omitted from the 1942 La Torre.

ALPHA ETA SIGMA DISCUSSES PLEDGES

Alpha Eta Sigma, national honorary accounting fraternity, will meet today at 4 in room 135.

Walter Schmidt, president, asks all members to appear at the meeting, at which time eligible accounting students will be discussed for pledging. Also the purchase of La Torre space will be discussed by the members.

DANIELS LEADS SENIORS; SOPHOMORES FAIL TO CHOOSE PRESIDENT

Lewis Daniels, speech major, won the senior presidential honors with a six-vote margin over Wilbur Scott, at the class elections conducted in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium yesterday. Daniels received 46 of the 86 votes cast for president.

Tom Harvey, biology major, was awarded the vice-presidency with a white ballot vote of 76.

Dorothy Jones was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer with 46 votes; June Gross followed with 40.

Dorothea Bernsdorf and Audrey Orcutt, receiving 29 and 31 votes respectively for AWA representative, must run again in order to determine the majority winner. Patricia Scholk received 17 votes for this office.

Herb Petty received 57 votes to win the office of vice-president. Irving "Izzy" Gold followed with 48.

Helen Donovan was awarded 57 votes to win the class secretaryship. Lorraine Titcomb received 48.

George Coles followed with 35 votes, Ed Roberts with 30, and Betty Buckley with 7.

Semerau, Leland Nominated For Debate Managers

Woodrow Semerau and Henry Leland were nominated at the Wednesday debate meeting for Varsity Debate Manager position, according to Miss Lucie Lawson of the Speech department.

Semerau, senior Political Science major, is acting debate manager until the decisive election. Leland, a sophomore Pre-Legal major from last year's freshman debate squad, was assistant manager for the '41 beginners.

The meeting Wednesday will decide between the two; however, further nominations will be in order. The meeting is not closed to members of the debate squads. All students interested in debate are urged to attend.

Some of the coming events to be discussed are a series of monthly debate conferences to be held on the campuses of bay area colleges. These debate conferences were originated at the University of California several years ago.

Another highlight of debate news is Howard Melton's participation in the Inter-collegiate Forum over station KFRC Sunday afternoon at 1:15.

Dance Honors Football Teams

Both the San Jose State and Fort Ord football teams will be honored at a dance tonight in the Student Center at 120 E. San Antonio street. A door prize will be an album of popular recordings to be offered at the dance.

There will be an admission charge of 10 cents; however, the winning team will be admitted free.

The dance is the first of a series of "off the record" dances to be given every other Friday at the Student Center by the YWCA.

The room is being decorated with bright red, white, and blue flags in honor of the guests from Fort Ord.

Y.M.C.A. ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Temporary officers were elected and plans were started for the coming year in the first meeting of the college "Y" Wednesday, October 3. Officers elected were: Sam Zones, president; John Bishop, vice-president; James Hamilton, secretary, and Paul Mobley, treasurer. The meeting was presided over by Sam Zones, who appointed committees to fulfill various necessities of organization.

Mr. Cok, secretary of the YMCA and Mr. H. Bailey, the new college adviser, sat in on the meeting. The students indicated a desire for a more active program than has been followed in past years. Officers are preparing a constitution to be presented at the next meeting. More members are wanted, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance at the next meeting of the "Y", October 8, in the city YMCA.

"The 'Y' offers various activities to the student designed to round out the student's personality," Sam Zones said.

'Beta Blitz' Dance Saturday Night

Beta Chi Sigma, on-campus social fraternity, will start the autumn quarter activities tomorrow night when they present the "Beta Blitz" sport dance at the San Jose Woman's club at 9 o'clock.

Today is the last day to obtain bids for this dance. Bids may be bought at the Controller's office or from any member of the Beta Chi Sigma fraternity. Price for the dance is 99 cents per couple.

Clyde Appleby's orchestra will furnish the music for this first fraternity dance of the quarter.

Moffett Soldiers Attend Classes

The "soldier boys" at Moffett Field are well represented in the college this quarter. Privates Jim O'Neil, Wayne Coe, and Eugene Crager, three of the "men in uniform", are enrolled in Mr. George Stone's course in elementary photography to supplement their army work. O'Neil and Coe are connected with the photo lab, while Crager is employed as film projectionist at the field.

Sergeant Jimmy Adecock, music major, is with San Jose State's symphony and band. He is assistant director of Moffett Field Air Corps Army Band.

Open Letter To Freshmen

To the freshman class: You are to be congratulated upon your fine work in student government. That excellent idea of a representative student council is indeed a progressive step. But perhaps a word of caution needs to be added along with the praise.

You are in college now: an institution in which everyone pulls together and functions as a single unit. Certainly your several high schools were the best in the country. Now, however, is the time to forget your high school ties and to concentrate on the fu-

Turn About's Fair Play

To many of the San Jose townspeople, San Jose State college is still "the normal school".

Monday night State will have an opportunity to support a town enterprise—the Community Chest parade. It will also have a chance to show the spirit of State—not a "ladies seminary" but a modern up-to-date college with a winning football team.

Let's get behind that parade—have a real noise rally to remind San Joseans of the Hardin-Simmons game—and create a better co-operative attitude on our part and on the part of the town.

With Santa Clara, California, and Stanford located within such a close radius of tends itself even to our campus and to the college press. Every student from the newest freshman to those who hold class offices have the right to criticize, praise, and offer suggestions, through the column, "Thrust and Parry".

ture. You are not ex-Wahoo high school students attending San Jose State. You are San Jose State college students and your undivided efforts should be directed toward the school that will nurture you for the next four years.

In these times of stress, you can clearly see what unified effort and loyalty can accomplish. You will either stand or fail by your own efforts in the next few months. There are two courses open: split up into various factions, or stick together.

The choice is put squarely up to you.

—Cook.

San Jose we have to "blow our horn and make noise" to keep people awake to the fact that they have 3500 students right here at home to support.

The support we want is in the form of game attendance and backing of college activities and growth. We can have this if we show ourselves willing in turn to support town enterprises.

During the depression the college was about the only thriving industry San Jose had. Monday night we have an opportunity to support it in a different way. The band, the football team, students, sororities, and organizations can all get out there and root for San Jose in the Community Chest parade.

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE
President San Jose State College

I wish you could have heard your own cheering Friday night. It was inspiring. United, whole-hearted, strong—and full of good sportsmanship and courtesy. I believe we have reached a high point in college spirit. I suspect we may be reflecting our concern for the national situation. Loyalty and patriotic spirit are in the air.

I know there have been among us in recent years a number of pseudo-sophisticates who have thought it childish, not quite the thing you know, to show enthusiasm for anything. I have seen a number of them. They sneer at anyone who shows a natural human reaction to a situation. They are, as I have observed, simple, shallow poseurs, attitudinizing for the kick they get out of it. But they do influence people. A sneer is a very difficult thing to combat. Most of us are vulnerable to the insinuation that we are old fashioned, simple, not quite up to the modern day.

THRUST and PARRY

Let us be fair, Rex Gardiner, in comparing the non-profit Book Exchange with the book stores.

You assume that a second and a third student can turn in a $15 set of books at the same $9.30 received by the first. Isn't there any depreciation? On this basis and the store resale price, you figure the student loss at $18.75, which you appear to think is book store profit, plus the original $3.00 "profit" on the set.

Do you know what profit your campus store actually made on books last year? When you find out you may revise your ideas about entering the book business. Further, I am told that any profit made by your campus store is used for student activities.

I am not opposed to the Book Exchange, but I predict that before it can begin to supply our books needs it will have to be operating on a business basis somewhat similar to that of our already established store.

—Guy G. George.

NOTICE

Tau Delt: There will be a noon meeting and luncheon in the Tower today. Will old members please pay dues before the meeting, as there will be an election for the office of magistrate.

I remember, when I myself was in the university, a number of the elite bethought themselves that it was childish, or oh, so boring, to attend the commencement exercises. As soon as classes were over they left the campus, full of important engagements. They directed the registrar to send their diplomas to some distant point, or even, and that was a good one, to keep it in the vault for further instructions. "I can't say now just where I shall be in the next month or two."

Well, one of those youngsters after his pose had rubbed itself against a thin pocketbook for a time, woke up and decided he would find himself a job. He considered some of the better businesses in the city, and decided to offer his services to one of them whose president had graduated from the same university. He thought it might be just as well to have a point of contact.

The president looked at the youngster. "When did you finish?" he said, "in June? I didn't see you there. You had no time to take part in your university's most sacred tradition? Listen, young man."

Revelries Tune

BRING THIS SONG TO THE FOOTBALL GAME TONIGHT

"Spartans Triumphant", written by Ed Ahzderian and Harril Johnson, students here, will be sung at the State-Fort Ord game tonight.

The song was one of the hit tunes of the 1941 version of Spartan Revelries, and it now has been adopted as a permanent college song.

Cut out the song and bring it with you to the game tonight.

Rah! For Spartans true and bold.
Banners high wave to and fro,
March, march onward 'gainst the foe.

Like a knight in armor bright
Fight! You Spartans, fight
While cheers of joy sound far and near

For dear old San Jose.

VARSITY SEPTET DOWN 'Y' WATER POLO TEAM

Freshmen Open Season Today

San Jose State college's varsity water polo team opened the 1941 season in a blaze of glory last night by downing the San Francisco YMCA splash artists 15 to 4 in the local pool.

Parker Snow, Marty Taylor and Douglas Bacon in the forward spots continually peppered the San Francisco goalie and accounted for most of the San Jose tallies.

THOMSON STARS
Al Corcoran in the center back position played heads-up ball, continually stopping the YMCA players or the State goal. Dave Thomson, impressive guard on last year's Frosh team, broke up the play of the Bay City forwards continually as did Egon Hoffman, goalie on last year's varsity team, who was made into a guard this year.

Dan Mehan played impressive ball at the goalie spot, stopping many shots of the YMCA forwards.

The next game for the varsity septet will be against the strong Olympic club in the local pool, October 10. Last year the Winged "O" team defeated the Spartans by close scores in both encounters. With the loss of their three first goalies, the Bay City team is considerably weaker than last year, states Coach Charley Walker.

FROSH TODAY
The freshman water polo team opens its season this afternoon in the local pool at 4 o'clock against the somewhat improved San Jose high school team.

Last year the Spartan yearlings downed the Bulldog septet in both contests. This year's squad is somewhat improved, states Coach Walker, and could give the Yearling team a battle in the opening encounter.

LACK EXPERIENCE
The lineup for the freshman ball splashes will find John Pingol, Robert Hepler and Jack Van Housen in the forward spots, Cecil Dumballian at the center back position, David Pederson and Bob Booth at the guard spots and Dick Anderson, tall lanky swimmer from Venice, in the goalie spot.

The freshman team has been practicing for the past two weeks and should be in fairly good shape despite the fact that they lack experience, states Walker, and as the season proceeds should develop into a smooth working team.

STANGER

Freshman Face Santa Rosa

YEARLING TEAM SEEKING SECOND STRAIGHT WIN TONIGHT IN J. C. TILT

By NIELS NIELSON

The Spartan freshman football team goes after its second victory tonight when it travels to Santa Rosa to meet the always dangerous Santa Rosa junior college Bear Cub eleven.

On the basis of past performances the freshmen should defeat the junior college men without much trouble. Comparative scores show that the freshmen defeated Salinas JC 20-6, Salinas defeated Martinez A. C. 14-6 and the Martinez A. C. dumped Santa Rosa J. C. 18-0.

However, Freshman Coach Bud Winter is quick to advance several reasons why these scores mean absolutely nothing. First, these were all early season games and coaches hadn't had time to find their best combinations. Secondly, the freshman victory over Salinas was due to a few tricks, which can't always be counted upon, and a great display of spirit. Thirdly, the Martinez victory over Santa Rosa is no measure of either team as Santa Rosa took the field without the services of several first string men.

OFFENSE DRILL

The freshmen have been working hard on offense, and along with the conventional Warner system they will use a private variety of what Winter terms "screwy plays". They are still about a week away from perfect timing and clean ball handling.

One of the biggest improvements in the team is the way blocking assignments are being carried out. Everyone is hitting harder and much more cleanly. With good blocking in front of them, quarter back Bill Perry, left half Collin Hill and fullback Francis McCrovoy should gain plenty of yards.

SEVERAL INJURIES

Coach Winter announced that the freshmen will take the field with several men handicapped by injury. Fullback Jack Gearing is still bothered with a bad shoulder. Quarterbacks Bill Perry and Bob O'Brien have injured legs, and O'Brien a twisted knee. First string tackle Bob Peters is suffering from what may be a broken hand. X-rays to be taken today will determine the extent of the injury.

The freshmen will use no set defense against the Cubs. If Santa Rosa uses the T formation, as expected, they will be faced with a different defense on every pass of the ball. Against Salinas the Frosh used an overshifted seven-man line to which the "lettuce pickers" never got wise. This type of variable defense changes the blocking assignments for the offense and makes it difficult to sustain an offensive drive.

Brooklyn Evens Count; Broadcast Today At 10:15

Well, a different story yesterday — the "Bums", better known as Brooklyn, stopped the Yankee winning streak behind the nine-hit pitching of Whitlow Wyatt, to even the present series count at one all.

The score was identical with Wednesday's score but with Brooklyn on the long end of the 3-2 count.

Today the broadcast will start at 10:15 o'clock and will again be broadcast to the students from in front of the Little theater.

Edwards Loses In Berkeley Net Tourney

Bill Talbert of Cincinnati dropped Ronald Edwards in the quarter finals at Berkeley by score of 8-6, 5-7, 6-0.

In two straight sets, Ronald Edwards, San Jose State college's star tennis player, went into the quarter finals of the Pacific Coast tennis championships at Berkeley Wednesday by downing Gunny Ammonette 6-0, 6-3.

Playing the kind of tennis that won him a place in the eastern circuit, Edwards put the ball into the corners and outguessed his opponent at almost all occasions to win easily.

In an earlier round, Edwards, seeded sixth in the tournament, eliminated Jack Gurley, runnerup in the State championships earlier this year.

Top-notch players in the tourney include Bobby Riggs, seeded number one; Frank Kovacs, Oakland ace, and Julius Heldman. Edwards lost to both Kovacs and Heldman in earlier tournaments

MEN WANTED FOR INTRAMURAL BALL, SAYS McPHERSON

Walt McPherson, athletic coach and intramural supervisor, issued a call today for more men to sign up for departmental teams in the touch football league slated to start competition Tuesday.

McPherson announced that the Police School department has entered a six-man squad and hopes that other departments will take the challenge and sponsor teams of their own.

Players, departments and organizations interested should contact McPherson by Monday so that the teams can be organized for the first day of play.

Games will be played during the regular Tuesday and Thursday noon-hour classes in touch football.

RIDING CLUB PRESIDENT ISSUES CALL FOR MORE MEN AS TRYOUTS NEAR

"My kingdom for some men!" was the plea of Helena Griffiths, newly elected president of the Riding club.

With the help of Betty Fitzgerald, new secretary-treasurer, and a council of four or five members, the organization is launching a drive for more members, "and," says Miss Griffiths pointedly, "this club is for both men and women."

Tryouts for new members will be held today at 4:30 and Tuesday, October 7, at the same time. No formal riding outfit is required, and both Western and English saddles are available. Any one interested should see Miss Griffiths before noon today or Tuesday or sign up with Miss Evelyn Amaral in the Women's gym.

Plans already under way for the quarter include an acceptance party for the new members and a barbeque picnic and ride.

On November 1 there will be a riding clinic at Mills college, at which members will receive criticism of their riding and will be offered lessons. The fee is $1, including lessons.

A trip to San Mateo later in the quarter is planned and members will be offered an opportunity to participate in the horse shows there.

A ride through Golden Gate park in San Francisco will be another of the many activities which the club will undertake. There will also be numerous moonlight rides and Sunday morning "breakfast" rides.

There is no fee for joining the club. Rides are 50 cents each and usually take place once a week.

The council will meet each Monday at 12:30 to discuss activities. Council members will be changed often so that everyone in the club will have an opportunity to be on it.

the 114 cast. Gottschang polled 38 votes.

Ann Mortensen was elected secretary-treasurer with 61 votes; Ray Stewart and Al Corcoran followed with 38 and 14 votes respectively.

The committee conducting the election, headed by Leon Torrey, election judge, was composed of Gene Long, Ann Wilson, Leslie Burmeister, William Raye and Lynwood Lyons.

The following service groups were represented in the committee: Tau Deltas, Alpha Phi Omega, Spartan Spears, and Spartan Knights.

The run-off election will be held Tuesday.

Orchesis Meets; Chooses Delegate

With a turnout of eleven potential modern dancers, Junior Orchesis held its first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon, in the dance studio. Mary Elizabeth Reynolds, sophomore special secondary major, was appointed as AWA representative.

The group voted to hold meetings each Monday from 4 to 5 o'clock, beginning October 6.

Anyone interested in modern dance is invited to attend the meetings.

All women who intend to try out for Orchesis, honorary dance society, should plan to attend Junior Orchesis this quarter, states Miss Lucas, dance instructor. The only requirement is a student body card.

NOTICES

Dancing! Games! Refreshments! Spend College Church Night with the Plymouth club at the Student Center, Third and San Antonio streets, on Saturday evening, October 4, at 8:00. All college students are cordially invited.

Newman hall, 79 South Fifth street, will be open for dancing this Friday evening after the game for members and their friends. Recordings will furnish the music. There will be a slight charge for outsiders.

Pre-Legal club: All people who intend to work in law and who are free should meet in room 122 at 12:30 on Monday. Those who are not free should contact Mr. O. M. Broyles in the Social Science department to discuss a more suitable meeting time.

New Orchestra Organized By Music Students

Twenty-five piece theater orchestra, composed of select San Jose State college musicians, has been organized under the leadership of Ed Azhderian, co-composer of the new "Spartan Triumphant" school song.

Adolph Otterstein, Music department head, announces that the new orchestra "will give our outstanding students an opportunity to play the works of Strauss, Victor Herbert, and others of the great semi-classical composers."

"Many of the semi-classics are not offered in regular band or symphony classes, and this orchestra will give at least twenty-five music students a new experience."

Rehearsals of the group, at which interested listeners will be welcome, are scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at 11 a.m. in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

NOTICE

Newman club will hold its first regular business meeting tonight at 7:15. All members, applicants, and Catholic students are invited to open house. Refreshments and recreation will follow the meeting.
